

The Busy Bakers Bread & Things

Tri-Development Center of Aiken County, Inc.

Tri-Development Center of Aiken County, Inc., serves individuals with autism, head and spinal cord injuries, and developmental disabilities. One of the services provided is vocational training. Busy Bakers Breads and Things is one of the many employment options available for those desiring to work.

Busy Bakers Breads and Things bake a variety of delicious breads and sweets. We currently bake the honey wheat demi loaves for T-Bonz restaurant in Augusta, Georgia, and have a booth annually at Aiken's Makin and the Odell Weeks Christmas Craft Show. We also bake and sell goods on site. We will cater your staff meeting, conference, or workshop. We can make the dinner rolls for your restaurant. If you just want a dozen of our fabulous gourmet cookies, you can call and place an order to pick up.

Tri-Development Center of Aiken County, Inc. is a United Way Agency.

We're proof that, when given the right opportunities and training, people with disabilities can accomplish great things!
